

Alliance Senior Manager – Domestic & Family Violence Alliance

The Alliance is a unique collaboration, which sees eight domestic & family violence organisations bring together their knowledge and experience of domestic & family violence, to create a more coordinated, coherent and whole of system approach to addressing domestic & family violence across South Australia.

The Role

The formation of the State-wide Domestic & Family Violence Alliance has led to the creation of a new and exciting opportunity for an Alliance Senior Manager to lead the delivery of transformational change through the implementation of Alliance vision, plans and strategy. The role is offered on a full time ongoing basis, subject to service funding.

The Alliance Senior Manager will play a pivotal role in leading, developing, and implementing consistent approaches and practices across the Alliance, including:

- Deploying Alliance principles, objectives and behaviours across the Alliance;
- Implementing cultural development plans driving performance, innovation, and collaboration across the Alliance;
- Embedding consistent change management and people management strategies and processes, and implementing workforce structures and plans to ensure Alliance effectiveness;
- Developing consistent risk management systems, financial and operational management plans, and KPI's and reporting mechanisms to ensure consistent delivery of Alliance outcomes;
- Develop communication strategies and plans for the Alliance;
- Proactively developing networks and strong relationships with funders, Alliance partners and key stakeholders to enhance service delivery and drive advocacy of services.

Essential Requirements

- Significant experience leading transformational change across multiple work sites/ work groups;
- Experience in the development and implementation of foundational frameworks for an Alliance or similar collaborative entity;
- Ability to utilise high level communication skills and engagement strategies to foster strong working relationships with stakeholders from diverse backgrounds;
- Innovating thinking capacity and the tenacity to drive the implementation of Alliance decisions, plans & strategies;
- Strong decision making skills, a willingness to take balanced risks, and initiative to make sound decisions based on analysis of risk and business needs;
- High level written and verbal communication skills, and ability to produce well-articulated written reports and briefings;
- Demonstrated understanding of domestic & family violence across diverse communities, and ability to collaborate with First Nation's people to provide culturally competent services and system responses.
